In this article, we highlight some of the best games that can be enjoyed with a partner and family members. The games we suggest will make you laugh and most importantly, they'll bring everyone closer together and let you share in memories.

1. The Couples' Pictionary Game A couple of years ago, one of the most popular Pictionary games was The Couples' Edition. It appears in many TV shows and is a great activity for a party or a family get-together. It is, however, a little bit pricy, so you may want to check out the other editions available for purchase before deciding on this one. The Pictionary board game involves having players draw pictures in order to help their teammates guess the word(s) on their playing card. This game is great for fostering creativity and can give you tons of fun with your partner.
2. The Family Trivia Game Are you on the lookout for a fun game that is easy to play and has simple rules? Then, try out Trivial Pursuit. You can start off with the first edition of the game, which is suitable for families with up to 4 players. As you progress through the levels, you can master several questions about different categories such as presidents, states, countries, famous people and sports icons. To make this game even more interesting, read up on some interesting facts about some of these people. Moreover, you'll be able to learn a thing or two from your partners in order to take home valuable information when it comes time to play again!
3. The Family Coupon Game If you've already tried out the family trivia game, then you should definitely give this one a go! It's called Family Coupon and is suitable for families with up to 6 players. To play, all you need to do is flip over your cards in order to match the numbers with the in-game coupons. It's a fun game that kids will love in any age group.
4. The Couples' Pictionary Drinking Game This game gets its name from The Couples' Edition that we mentioned earlier in this article. Basically, you and your partner(s) will have to guess as many words as possible from a series of clues. The best thing about this game is that it's extremely funny and makes it easy to have fun with your friends or family members.
5. The Family Bingo Game Bingo is a popular game amongst families and can be played in various ways. One of the best ways to play it with the whole family is the family bingo game, a fun activity that can be enjoyed on birthdays or on any occasion when you have a lot of people coming over.
